Constantinople, October 21.

THE Venetian Bailo has made up the Difference with the Port about the Dulcignot Veſſel, and a Courier is ſent away with an Account of it to the Senate. The Turkiſh Ambaſſadour is returned hither from France, having been brought back by two French Men of War of 60 and 40 Guns, commanded by Meſſ. de Camilly and de Nangis. The French Ambaſſadour having preſented thoſe Captains to the Vizier, he gave them Preſents of Handkerchiefs and Veſts. They will be going hence in about Ten Days, and deſign in their Way to touch at ſeveral Ports in the Levant, having on board a Director of Commerce of their Nation, who is to enquire into and regulate ſuch Abuſes in Trade as he ſhall diſcover at any of thoſe Places, according to the Cuſtom practiſed by the French once in three Years. The Muſcovite Reſident M. Neplevit a Sea Officer, who lately came hither, was carried by the Envoy to his Audience of the Grand Signior four Days ago, at which the Ratifications of the new Treaty between the Port and the Czar were exchanged, and the Envoy took his Leave in order to return Home, leaving the other to reſide here. M. Dirling who was Secretary of the Embaſſy to Count Virmont, and has continued here ever ſince his Departure with that Title, is lately declared the Emperour's Reſident, and is preparing to take his Audiences of the Vizier and Grand Signior with that Character. The Grand Signior's Fleet of Ships and Gallies is lately returned from the Archipelago, but have brought in no Malteze Prizes as they generally uſed to do.

Stockholm, Nov. 8. On the 2d Inſtant Advice came of M. Campredon's Arrival at Petersbourg, and that as ſoon as the Froſt ſets in the Czar intends to make a Tour to Moſcow with his whole Court. The laſt Letters from Abo brought an Account of the ſafe Arrival of moſt of the Troops lately ordered thither. It was laſt Week finally determined what Regiments ſhall be broke; but the College of War hath not yet thought fit to declare which they are, though it is ſaid it will be made publick ſome time this Week. An Expreſs brought News laſt Week from Jon-Kopping, that Field-Marſhal Count Morner died there on the 30th paſt.

Madrid, Nov. 17. On the 12th Inſtant arrived an Expreſs, with an Account of the Duke of St. Simon's Arrival rival at Bayone the 9th Inſtant, on his Way hither. Upon which the Preparations for their Catholick Majeſties Journey to Bayone, with the Infanta Queen of France, are haſtened; and for this Service his Majeſty has bought the five magnificent Coaches which the late Duke of Oſſuna had made in France, for a publick Entry on Occaſion of the Peace of Utrecht. The Prince of Santo Buono, who lately arrived from Peru, where he was Vice-roy, came to Court on the 12th Inſtant, and the next Day in the Evening had a private Audience of the King, by whom he was very graciouſly received. The Court is gone into Mourning for the Death of the Great Dutcheſs of Tuſcany, but will lay it aſide at ſetting out on the Journey for Burgos.

Berne, Nov. 19. Letters from Zurich of the 15th Inſtant give an Account, that the Differences which had been ſubſiſting ſome Time between the Canton of Glaris and their Subjects of the Diſtrict of Werdenberg, not appearing likely to be accommodated peaceably by the Mediation of the Deputies of Zurich ſent thither for that Purpoſe, the ſaid Canton had cauſed 2000 Men to draw out and advance towards Werdenberg; on whoſe Approach to the Mountain called Schollberg, the Werdenbergers who had taken the Field likewiſe and ſeemed reſolved to ſtand upon their Defence, retired for the moſt Part with Precipitation into the neighbouring Country, and ſuch as remained, being about a third Part of them, ſubmitted entirely to their Maſters, and carried their Arms into the Caſtle: That thereupon ſome of the chief Officers of Glaris having repaired to Werdenberg, ſent out their Declaration immediately to thoſe who had abſented themſelves, importing that unleſs they returned with all Diligence to their Houſes, and made their Submiſſion as the reſt of them had done, they might expect to have Troops quartered upon them. Theſe Threats had their Effect, the greateſt Part of thoſe who had retired having returned Home and delivered up their Arms: Which done, the Troops of Glaris entred into the Country of Werdenberg, and ſoon after marched out again, without doing the leaſt Injury or Damage, and are ſince gone Home. The Deputies of Zurich having been very inſtrumental in diſpoſing by their Exhortations the Inhabitants of Werdenberg to make an abſolute Submiſſion; the Council of the Canton of Glaris deputed Sixteen of their Principal Members to thank thoſe Mediators for the good Offices done by them in this Affair. This Canton of Berne having had Notice, that two Bales of Goods which came from about Lyons, were diſpatched this Way for Germany from Geneva, and having paſſed as far as Moudon in the Pays de Vaud, were there ſtopt by Order of the Bailiff; the Council here took Cognizance of the Matter, and upon Debate reſolved thoſe Bales ſhould forthwith be ſent back to Geneva.
